Lýsing:

My Sister's Keeper will be read and film based on the book will be watched in class. There will be discussions in class and group work dealing with different parts of the book and aspects of the film. Their progress will be evaluated through different presentations, oral exams and debates and quizzes. Students will be responsible for the presentation of their work both individually and as a part of a group. Students will work on projects with a theme connected to cinematography. Students will continue their practice in essay writing, by applying that knowledge and drafting an essay based on Citizen Kane film. Also, students will assess the work of other students or a group of students.

Þekking, leikni, hæfni:

The aim of this course is to help students to.....

- Gain insight into the requirements and possibilities of the two media, book, and film, through studying what happens when a book is filmed.
- Develop an analytical approach to both literature and films – as storytelling and as works of art – through discussions, presentations, and writing.
- Further develop students' proficiency in the English language and their critical thinking skills
